

Outdoor program to hire teens for conservation efforts

January 5, 2010

A youth program that hires teenagers to complete conservation projects is seeking applications. Projects include trail construction, environment management and habitat enhancement.

Thanks to grant money from the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, the Northwest Youth Corps will hire 80 teens for various outdoor projects. The Herbert A. Templeton Foundation will help pay for program coordinators, according to a news release.

To learn more about the nonprofit youth program or to apply for a job, go to www.northwestyouthcorps.org.

— Mackenzie Ryan